BIBLE SOCIETY ANNIVERSARY

Dr. Wagner Preaches Sermon before the Congregations of Town. Celebrating Sixty Seventh Anniversary of Local Organization.

The sixty seventh anniversary of the Woman's Bible Society of Gettysburg was held before a large audience in St. James Lutheran church Sunday evening.

Rev. F. E. Taylor, of the Presbyterian church, read the Scripture lesson and Dr. T. J. Barkley offered prayer. The report of the treasurer showed that $90 was paid to the American Bible Society during the past year. The sermon was preached by Dr. A. E. Wagner, pastor of the College Lutheran church. He said in part:

In the first place we would say the Bible is the incomparable book. It is what Sir Walter Scott in his dying hour called "The Book." It is not simply a good book or a better book. It is THE BOOK. It stands alone and must stand alone or not at all. It is the revelation of the God who recognizes no other gods and as such a revelation it will not submit to comparison. The science of comparative religion will do for men-made systems but cannot include the religion of the one true God.

In the second place the Bible is the indispensable book. If you question this affirmation our answer is the history of the race, the map of the world. Compare heathen nations with Christian nations and account for the superiority of the latter on any other grounds if you can. The nations that are to-day directing and controlling the currents of human progress are the nations that have come under the uplifting influence of this indispensable book. Dr. Hillis calls the Bible "The Handbook of the Republic." Ex-Ambassador Joseph Choate in addressing the British and Foreign Bible Society, said "Our Pilgrim Fathers carried from the shores of Old England to the shores of New England one possession of lasting value. That possession of priceless value was the King James' Bible. It was their only readable book. Upon it they built the State. It was their ark of the covenant and within its sacred covers they found

"A shelter from the Stormy blast And their eternal home." In the third place let it be said that this incomparable and indispensable book is also the Inspired book. No other theory will account either for its structure or influence. This book which was sixteen centuries in its making, which was written by more than thirty different authors, by kings in their palaces and shepherds in their tents, by law-givers on the desert and prophets in their temples, by apostles on missionary journeys and prisoners in their dungeons, forms one complete harmonious whole. To this there is just one explanation. "Holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost."

In the fourth place let it be said that the Bible is the Indestructible book. Men have tried to destroy it. They have burned the books and men who proclaimed it, but the book abides. "Heaven and Earth shall pass away," but these words of mine shall not pass away." You might to-night burn up every copy of the Bible in the world and before to-morrow's sunset reproduce it from the world's literature. And then you might burn up every library in the world and then substantially reproduce the Bible from the world of art, so largely has the truth of the Bible been painted on canvas, chiselled in marble and cast in bronze, and then you might burn every art gallery and you could produce a sufficient Bible from the conservatories of music. There is enough gospel in Handel's great oratorio—"The Messiah"—to save a lost race.

And then when you had burned every Bible and every library, and every art gallery and every conservatory of music, your Bible would still remain where fire could not touch it—namely in the minds and hearts of a countless host of believers. Yes! There is at least one indestructible book.

Other books are read for a day and then pass into history, or oblivion. Homer's harp has long since been hung on the wall of the ages but David's is as vibrant and resonant as ever and daily is the joy and the hope of an increasing host of believers.

PENN HALL GIRLS VISIT THE FIELD

Girls from Chambersburg School Come to Gettysburg on Unexpected Visit. Cause Interest among the Local Youths at School.

With little warning Penn Hall swooped down upon Gettysburg this morning, fifty strong, and the girls from the Chambersburg institution took possession of the town before college boys and the residents of the town knew just what was going on.

The invasion this year was more unexpected than at any previous time. Not a whisper of the impending visit was heard here and it was not until this morning that arrangements were made for taking care of the girls after their arrival in town. Principal McGill and a strong cordon of teachers and chaperones accompanied the young ladies and they were under heavy guard during their stay here, so say the youths from our own institution of learning.

Automobiles and the big Caledonia bus were used to convey the girls, all in their new fall suits and millinery. Those who came in the bus were taken over the field in wagons provided by Holtzworth Brothers while the remainder made the tour in their own cars.

Care was taken to visit the Gettysburg College campus while the boys were at their noon-day meal but at many a boarding house along Washington street the youngsters ran from the dinner table with as much eagerness as though an Uncle Tom's Cabin parade were about to appear. They waved a welcoming salute to their fair sisters as the machines whisked by, and then returned to the sterner duties of life.

The return trip to Chambersburg was started early in the afternoon as soon as the second trip over the battlefield was completed. Dinner was taken at the Eagle Hotel.

General Charles H. Pine, chairman of the commission which had in charge the erection of the memorial to General Sedgwick, has created a fund, the interest of which is to provide an annual trip to Gettysburg to the graduate of the Ansonia, Conn., High School, having the best grade in history. The prize is given "to the end that such visit to the battlefield by each and every such graduate receiving said prize may prove an object lesson in patriotism and enable each and every recipient to obtain an intelligent understanding of the troops engaged and the tactics employed upon the famous battlefield of Gettysburg." The conditions of the gift require the recipient to make a written report of his trip to the trustee of the fund within a reasonable time after his return home.

PREPARING FOR THE CORN SHOW

Boys and Girls of the County to Show Products of the Field, Garden and Kitchen here on Tuesday of Institute Week.

A meeting of the Board of Managers of the Adams County Boys' and Girls' Agricultural and Domestic Science League was held at the office of County Superintendent Roth on Saturday and final arrangements were made for the exhibit to be held here on Tuesday, November 18, during Institute Week. Prof. Roth is chairman ex-officio; Arthur C. Griest is secretary, and Edward A. Trostie, treasurer.

All goods to be exhibited must be at the Adams County Court House by ten o'clock Tuesday morning where they will be placed on display and viewed by three men who will judge the boys' products and three women who will pass on the work of the girls. They will perform their duties between the hours of ten and twelve o'clock after which the exhibit will be open to the public until five o'clock in the afternoon, nothing to be removed until five o'clock when the treasurer will distribute the prizes all of which will be in cash.

Only those who are already members of the leagues in this county or who may become so between this time and the date of the exhibit may bring in their products for display and competition. All who expect to take part in the corn and potato growing contests are expected to comply strictly with the stipulated conditions the chief of which are the following:

First, the corn shall be grown on a plot containing one quarter of an acre.

Second, any variety of corn may be used. Third, each contestant must make a written report covering variety grown, character of the soil and treatment thereof, method of planting, kind and amount of fertilizer used, dates and character of cultivation, and dates of planting and harvesting. The corn must be weighed and very immature, mouldy or rotten corn should not be included, and the corn shall not be husked until it is in good cribbing condition.

Fourth, ten ears shall be selected to be placed on exhibition in the county contest.

The prizes will be awarded in accordance with the following scale of points, Yield 60 per cent, Sample (10 ears) 30, Report 10, Total 100.

The first award for corn will be $10.00, second prize, $6.00; third prize, $3.00; next two prizes, $1.00 each.

Prizes will also be offered for exhibits of corn not raised exclusively by boys, but for corn with the raising of which they had something to do. For the best ten ears of corn of any class or variety, $3.00; second prize, $2.00; third prize, $1.00. For the best ear of corn, $1.00.

The conditions for the potato contest are these: First: Potatoes shall be grown on one quarter of an acre. Second any variety of potatoes may be used. Third each contestant must make a report of the character of the soil, the method of planting, the kind and amount of fertilizer used, date and character of cultivation and dates of planting and digging, potatoes to be weighed and one peck selected to be placed on exhibition. Potatoes below one and one-half ounces in weight should be rejected.

The awards will be based on the same scale as the corn and the prizes for potatoes will be of the same amount as for the corn. There will also be a contest for the best peck of potatoes not grown entirely by boys, similar to the corn contest of the same character. The prizes will be the same, the fourth prize of $1.00 being for the best potato.

On account of the varied character of the other exhibits and the indefinite information at hand concerning them, the prizes will not be fixed until the day of the exhibit. The variety of work of the leagues covers a wide range, including the raising of corn, potatoes, pop corn, turnips, celery cabbage and various other vegetables, flowers, cooking, baking, sewing, needle work and household economics.

Boys and girls intending to enter any of the contests should write promptly to Prof. Roth for the necessary blanks.

GETTYSBURG 34 MT. ST. MARY'S 6

Wet and Muddy Field Sees Annual Gridiron Battle between Gettysburg and Emmitsburg Schools Scrubs Lose by Large Score.

Gettysburg College won its first real foot ball victory of the year on Saturday by defeating Mount St. Mary's on Nixon Field, covered with deep mud and water, by the score of 34 to 6. The mountaineers were dangerous only in the early part of the first period and costly fumbles at the goal line prevented Gettysburg's score from being higher.

Mt. St. Mary's kicked off and, by consistent gains, Gettysburg carried the ball down the field and over the line, Hoar kicking the goal. Gettysburg kicked off and Mt. St. Mary's made several short gains and then resorted to three well executed forward passes which took the ball over Gettysburg's goal, scoring their six points. The try at goal failed.

Straight foot ball was again resorted to by Gettysburg and another touchdown and goal resulted. Again the ball was rushed down the field, Scheffer and Poffinberger being worked on almost every play. Just as the ball was being carried over for the third touchdown it was fumbled. Mt. St. Mary's touched it down and the ball was put in play on the twenty five yard line.

Everything was Gettysburg's way in the second half. On the second play Poffinberger intercepted a forward pass and ran thirty yards for Gettysburg's third touchdown. Short runs took the ball down for the fourth score before the end of the period and in the last quarter Schaeffer caught a forward pass near the goal line and took it over. Again in this quarter the ball was fumbled on the goal line after it had been worked all the way down the field and the game ended Gettysburg 34, Mt. St. Mary's 6.

The condition of the field made careful judgment of the work of the team difficult but they showed good offensive strength and a good defense except early in the first quarter.

While the first team was playing here the Scrubs were being defeated 43 to 0 by Williamsport High School at Williamsport. Mead, one of their best players, was badly hurt early in the game, being rendered unconscious from a blow on the head and the team went to pieces.

NEGRO ATTACKS GIRL

When He is Identified Mob Seeks to Lynch Him.

Sharon, Pa., Oct. 27.—Residents of this town are up in arms over the attack made upon Miss Curwin Kemery, daughter of W. M. Kemery, by a gigantic negro. It is feared that a lynching may be attempted.

Miss Kemery was walking home from work when she was attacked by the negro. She was dragged to a dark spot along the Shenango river bank, choked senseless and assaulted. She was in the negro's power almost two hours. The attack took place within 100 yards of the police station.

Officer Lansdowne arrested George McDavid, twenty-six years old, a negro porter at the Colonial hotel. He was taken to the girl's home and identified by her as her assailant. It was necessary for four men to restrain the girl's father from murdering the negro. Kemery snatched a big knife from the kitchen table and attempted to attack McDavid with it.

McDavid had hardly been placed in a cell when the jail was surrounded by several hundred men and boys, who had previously assisted in a search for the girl. They demanded that the negro be turned over to them for summary punishment.

Ropes were brought out, and it was only after the police had threatened to shoot the first man who made a move that the mob dispersed.

ROBBED AS FEET WERE BEING AMPUTATED

Hospital Orderly Rifled Clothing of Patients.

Philadelphia, Oct. 27.—On a charge of having stolen a watch from a man whose feet were being amputated at the Methodist hospital, Paul Reiker, eighteen years old, formerly an orderly at the institution, was held in $400 bail for court by Magistrate Gorman.

A patient named Guest, who met with an accident near Bongor, Pa., was taken to the Methodist hospital to have his feet cut off. As he lay helpless beneath the influence of the ether, Reiker took his watch, as he confessed to Special Policeman Keys.

Another patient, Frank Price, was similarly robbed of a diamond stickpin while he was helpless in the surgical ward. Reiker at first denied any knowledge of the missing stickpin, upon returning Price's clothes to him. But the orderly had told another patient of having found a pin, and he finally admitted the theft. The discovery of the whereabouts of Guest's watch followed.

ACCUSED OF SHOOTING SISTER

Brother Confessed, Saying He Did Not Like Her Sweetheart.

Ardmore, Pa., Oct. 27.—Joe Petroskey, eighteen years old, of West Manayunk, was arrested by Policemen Murphy and Robinson as he was about to depart from his home to enlist in the United States navy.

The police accuse him of shooting his sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Kaczner, while she was sitting on the porch of her home with a friend, Aloysius Flynn, of West Manayunk, on the night of Sept. 21.

After his arrest, the police say, Petroskey broke down and confessed to Captain Donaghy that he had shot his sister because he did not like "that man Flynn."

"I fired the shots that struck my sister," he said. "I wanted to scare Flynn away. I did not mean to hit any one."

Petroskey was held in $1000 bail to await the outcome of Mrs. Kaczner's injuries. She has practically recovered from the wound inflicted by the bullet, which is still in her neck, but it is likely she will lose the sight of one eye.

Mule Lives to Age of 48. Springfield, Tenn., Oct. 27.—A mule born in 1865 on the farm of Robert Holman, near Springfield, and sold thirty years ago as a "plug" to an old negro, passed his checks last week as the oldest mule Tennessee ever produced, being at his death forty-eight years old.

EPISCOPALS END CONFERENCE

General Convention Adjourns in Hopeless Deadlock.

AN ERROR CAUSES BLOCKADE

Bishops and Deputies Fail to Act or Negro or Change of Name Questions.

New York, Oct. 27.—The general convention of 1913 of the Protestant Episcopal church passed into history in a hopeless deadlock on two important resolutions, with the most far-reaching topic of legislation before it unconsidered by one house because of an error in the other, and with a positive refusal to consider a request of the Women's Christian Temperance Union that fermented grape juice be substituted for wine in the communion service.

On the proposal to establish a separate bishopric for negroes in the south and on the proposed elimination of the words "Jews, Turks, Infidels and Heretics," from the Good Friday collect, the house of deputies were deadlocked. On the proposal to require a two-thirds vote to change the name of the church, adopted by the deputies, the bishops refused to act because the resolution was sent to them only on Friday, after having passed the lower house more than two weeks ago.

For two weeks the draft of this radical measure lay at the bottom of a pile of waste paper on the secretary's desk. Its presence there was not detected until Friday. In the entire membership of the house of deputies not one man dreamed that the resolution was not before the bishops for action.

"I assume full blame for the trouble," announced the assistant secretary, Rev. Carroll M. Davis, dean of Trinity Cathedral, St. Louis. "It was my business to see that this resolution was sent to the bishops. I thought I had seen sent. I was astounded to find it on my desk Friday and sent it over at once to the other house."

The bishops, however, declined to consider the measure in the few remaining hours of the convention, and so notified the deputies. A committee of deputies was then appointed by the chairman to request the bishops to take up the matter nevertheless, but without success.

All hope of breaking the deadlock was abandoned when the house of deputies without waiting for the conference committee's report refused by the overwhelming vote of 91 to 13 to concur with the house of bishops on the negro issue. The bishops were equally determined not to recede from their stand. Upon learning of the action of the deputies the conference committee ceased its efforts to bring about an adjustment.

On the heels of the deputies' refusal to concur with the bishops the bishops refused to concur with the deputies in two important resolutions adopted by the deputies early in the convention. The first of these was to the effect that a two-thirds vote be necessary to change the name of the church; the second proposed to eliminate from the Good Friday collect the clause asking divine grace for "Jews, Turks, Infidels and Heretics." The bishops, by adverse vote, killed both proposals.

After disposing of the negro question the deputies marked time waiting for word from the bishops that they were ready for the joint devotional services which terminated the convention.

DOG NABS A RICH BURGLAR

Catches and Holds Him Until Pretty Mistress Calls Police.

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 27.—A bulldog and a pretty girl captured a prize burglar here late at night.

He is William Bastian, who for five years has lived with his young sister, Josephine, in a richly furnished house on the proceeds, the police say, of robberies that have netted him $200,000. Bastian books showing balances at banks of more than $10,000 were found at his residence, where his sister was arrested.

Bastian was crossing a back yard after having robbed, it is said, a near by house. Prince, a pet bulldog, nabbed the man and held on until his mistress, Miss Jennie Debrunner, summoned the police.

Saves Eight Men From Motorboat.

Point Judith, R. I., Oct. 27.—During a thick fog the Point Judith lifesavers rescued eight men from a powerboat belonging to the Breakwater company, of Philadelphia. The powerboat ran out of gasoline and was lost, the shouting of the men being heard by surf men on patrol. The men were taken off nearly exhausted.

New Envoy Rents Palace.

Berlin, Oct. 27.—The new American ambassador to Germany, James W. Gerard, rented for the embassy a house on Wilhelm Platz known as the Von Schwabach Palace, and formerly owned by a banker of that name. The ambassador is to pay a yearly rental of $15,000, instead of the $22,500 at first demanded.

Had Fingers and Toes to Spare. Williamsport, Pa., Oct. 27.—Edith Fry, a twelve-year-old Pennsylvania girl, underwent a successful operation for the removal of an extra finger on each of her hands and an extra toe on each of her feet.

Plans to Open Clinics in Baltimore and New York.

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 27.—That the free radium clinic to be conducted by Dr. Howard A. Kelly here will be closely affiliated eventually with the Johns Hopkins Medical school is the plan of Dr. Kelly.

He so expressed himself in discussing the organization of the National Radium Institute and the plan to open two free radium clinics for the cure of cancer—one in Baltimore, the other in New York. He said:

"I am very sanguine over the outlook of the radium clinics. It will be necessary, however, to erect a special building for the radium clinics, one large enough to contain about 100 beds. Before this can be done further endowment will be necessary, but while it will require considerable money, I am confident that it will be supplied."

"Before the general clinic can be opened it will be necessary to get at least ten grams—about $1,000,000 worth—more of radium. There is on hand now in the neighborhood of $120,000 worth, and this will be required for the treatment of present pressing cases."

"Patients are coming from all parts of the country, but before the radium treatment can be made general the additional amount of the mineral must be obtained, and the special radium building should be erected. I cannot see how this can possibly come about in less than three years."

FISHES AS BOY DROWNS

Man Makes No Effort to Save Boy Who Lost Life Near Him.

Burlington, N. J., Oct. 27.—Walking across the bridge of the Mount Holly branch of the Pennsylvania railroad over Assisunk creek, nine-year-old Dominick Kovalieski made a misstep, slipped between the ties and fell into the swift current.

He could not swim, but three times he came to the surface, and a companion had almost reached him when he went down to his death.

Other boys told the police that a man sat fishing on the bank within a few feet of where the boy sank, but turned a deaf ear to their shouts for help, and made no effort to aid the drowning boy.

Vatican Watching Spain.

Rome, Oct. 27.—The political crisis in Spain is being closely watched by the Vatican. Pope Pius and Cardinal Merry del Val, the papal secretary of state, are being kept constantly informed on the development of events. The Spanish clergy and episcopacy have been instructed to maintain a strict neutrality.

Many an Orchardist who this year kept up clean cultivation until well toward the 1st of August has seen the yield he looked for cut down threefold or more, due as a result of the unusually dry weather that followed. This condition noted was greatly aggravated by the unusually warm and dry conditions which prevailed the latter part of June and early July, following a fall and winter season that had been the driest in years. Should such conditions prevail again cultivation should be continued clear up to picking time, or well into September.

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

If Mixed with Sulphur It Darkens so Naturally Nobody can Tell

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grand-mother's treatment, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" for about 50 cents a bottle. It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive; besides, prevents dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair.

HOW A BROOKLYN GIRL

Got Strong and Well Again.

Grace D. Lamb of Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "I was all run-down and on the verge of nervous prostration. I could not sleep for pain in my back. In all I was a wreck. A friend told me what Vinol had done for her little girl so I tried it. I noticed an improvement after the first bottle. I could sleep well, my appetite improved, and after taking three bottles I am strong and well again."

Vinol is the most efficient strength creator for such women. It is the medicinal elements of the cod's livers contained in Vinol aided by the blood making and strengthening properties of tonic iron which makes it so far superior to all other tonics to build up health and strength for weak, tired, ailing women. It contains no oil and has a delicious taste.

We give back your money if Vinol does not do all that we claim. People's Drug Store, Gettysburg, Pa.

P. S. If you have any skin trouble try Saxo Salve. We guarantee it.

QUESTION CLEARED UP

Gettysburg Readers Can No Longer Doubt the Evidence.

Again and again we have read of strangers in distant towns who have been cured by this or that medicine. But Gettysburg's pertinent question has always been "Has anyone here in Gettysburg been cured?" The word of a stranger living a hundred miles away may be true, but it cannot have the same weight with us as the word of our own citizens, whom we know and respect, and whose evidence we can so easily prove.

W. N. Flaherty, 311 Washington St., Gettysburg, Pa., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been of great benefit to me and I willingly recommend them. I was injured some years ago and my kidneys were affected. I got various remedies, but nothing seemed to do me any good until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. They quickly cured me. Whenever I have taken them since, they have done good work."

TONS OF FOOD HELD IN STORAGE

Proof Given That Warehouses Help Keep Up Prices.

127,978,332 EGGS HELD

More Than Ten Million Pounds of Butter Was Being Held on First of the Month.

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 27.—Proof of the oft-repeated assertion that the cold storage interests have been an important factor in keeping up the cost of living by hoarding vast quantities of food was supplied convincingly when the state dairy and food commission announced the figures taken from the reports made under the state's new cold storage law.

Among other things, the following quantities of commodities were held in cold storage on Oct. 1:

Eggs ..... 127,978,332
Eggs (broken, in bulk) 239,821 pounds
Butter ..... 10,445,790 pounds
Fish ..... 3,341,487 pounds
Domestic poultry ..... 743,772 pounds
Beef ..... 376,136 pounds
Game ..... 17,477 pounds

In domestic meats the figures are equally staggering. Among the whole carcasses were 33,325 pounds of beef, 11,222 of veal, 142,596 of sheep, both lamb and mutton, and 1275 of hogs.

The commission and storage men seem for some reason to prefer to handle dismembered carcasses of beef and hogs, probably for convenience; sheep are preferred whole, according to the figures, and calves run about the same.

Under the heading of "parts of carcasses, classified," besides beef, were 11,343 pounds of veal; 20,286 of lamb and mutton, and 576,217 of pork. Besides this array, the warehouses, as a whole, reported 45,655 pounds of carcasses not classified.

Seventy-seven cold storage warehouses are operating under licenses issued by the dairy and food division in accordance with the provisions of the Wilson-Gans cold storage bill of the last legislature, which went into effect in midsummer. Commissioner Foust believes he has every warehouse and that none has escaped the license.

Heavy penalties are provided for any which operate without a permit.

The act provides strict regulations as to the length of time foods may be kept. All are labeled when stored, and they cannot be kept beyond the specified time limit. Foust said weeks ago, for instance, that if the commission men would release the eggs in the warehouses the price would at once drop at least ten cents per dozen, and he insisted that no famine in eggs would result, because by the time the stored supply was exhausted the south would begin to dump its January and February crop into the north.

The bulk of the eggs in storage are said to have been placed there at about the same time last spring, which will make their time limit expire at Christmastime. If they are not released, until their time expires and the southern eggs begin to come in at the same time, Pennsylvania may find exceedingly cheap eggs in midwinter. This is what the people are waiting to see.

SUFFRAGISTS IN PITTSBURGH

Leaders Plan Whirlwind Campaign For Votes For Women.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Oct. 27.—Many women, advocates of equal suffrage, reached Pittsburgh and more are expected today, preparatory to the opening of the state convention of the Pennsylvania Woman Suffrage Association tomorrow.

Important conferences of leaders and committee meetings are being held today. The first public mass meeting will be held tomorrow evening, with Assistant Secretary of Labor Louis F. Post as the principal speaker. The convention, it is declared by leaders of the movement, will be the beginning of a whirlwind campaign for votes for women, and when the work is done in Pittsburgh it will be extended to other parts of the state.

HALF SHAVES MAN AND DIES

Barber, Lathering Customer While Others Wait, Falls.

York, Pa., Oct. 27.—Just as he had finished shaving one side of the face of a customer, George L. Pitt, a well known barber and assessor and tax collector of the First ward for some years, fell dead in his shop here. He was fifty-five years old and heart disease was the cause of death.

Pitt had Joseph Fuller in the chair and was rubbing lather upon the unshaved side of his customer's face when he fell as though shot.

An Increase of 30,000 Autos.

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 27.—Pennsylvania's income from automobile license registration for 1913 may pass the $900,000 mark. It is more than $825,000 now, and within a short time license No. 80,000 will be issued. The registration is about 30,000 cars ahead of last year.

Nine Killed in Strike Riot.

Trinidad, Colo., Oct. 27.—One deputy sheriff and eight strikers are reported killed in a battle. Deputies sent from here put an end to the firing at Berwind, Hastings, Tabasco and Cedar Hill camps. Later the fight was renewed near Ludlow.

Miss Anna McIlhenny, Mrs. Cobean and Mrs. J. McIlhenny have gone to York to spend the day.

REAR ADMIRAL BADGER.

Commands Battleship That Sailed Under Sealed Orders.

WAR PLANS OUT; SHIPS TO MEXICO

Cruise of U. S. Warships to Gibraltar a Ruse.

Philadelphia, Oct. 27.—That President Wilson has given up all hope that the Mexican situation can be improved without intervention was the general opinion of officers and men alike at League Island, where unusual preparations are being made to place the reserve fleet at the island in readiness for immediate use.

While declining to be quoted or allowing their names to be used, two officers, both of whom would be in a position to know the future plans of the government regarding the navy, said that there was no doubt that President Wilson realized that the election in Mexico would bring about a crisis that would demand action, for which he had been planning for the last two months.

Last Saturday nine of the finest dreadnoughts, the pick of the American navy, left Norfolk ostensibly for Gibraltar. This fleet, under command of Rear Admiral Badger sailed under sealed orders. According to an officer at League Island, these orders were for the fleet to proceed south at a snail's pace until off the coast of Mexico where they would be in readiness to take immediate action on Tuesday or Wednesday of this week, when the full returns of the Mexican elections are known.

Officers at League Island believe that the government will take such action in the next few days that will mean almost a declaration of war. In support of this theory these same officers point to the fact that the nine dreadnoughts already on their way to Mexican waters are so large that they could not approach all points on the Mexican coast and would be used for blockade purposes.

The third division of the Atlantic fleet, according to the officers, could approach any port in Mexico and if necessary shell the inland country for a distance of five miles.

ELECTIONS IN ITALY

Government Assured of Majority, But Socialists Make Gains.

Rome, Oct. 27.—General elections were held throughout Italy. The disorders were not as serious as had been expected, although one person was killed and many were wounded. Numerous arrests were made.

The balloting was light. Results of the election will not be definitely known until late today, but already the government is assured of a large majority. The Socialists apparently have made large gains.

Giovanni Giolitti, the premier, has been re-elected almost unanimously with the other members of his cabinet. In a hundred constituencies a fierce struggle was waged, especially between Socialists and Catholics, and in these a second ballot will be taken next Sunday.

DIAZ LEADS IN MEXICAN VOTE

He Is Reported to be Under Arrest in Vera Cruz.

SOLDIERS GUARDING HUERTA

Indications Are That Not Sufficient Votes Have Been Cast to Validate Election and Dictator Will Continue as Provisional President.

Mexico City, Mex., Oct. 27.—A report that General Felix Diaz has been arrested in Vera Cruz caused a great stir in the capital.

Diaz is said to be on his way to Mexico City under an escort of soldiers, and his partisans, gathering wherever possible in spite of the vigilance of the patrols, are earnestly discussing the possibility of the key figure being invoked under one pretext or another.

There is a tenseness in the very atmosphere and rioting may follow at any moment. Machine guns and additional troops have been placed about the president's palace in anticipation of trouble.

Voting throughout the country has been light. In some places there was no voting at all. Diaz appears to be running ahead of his three rivals, but the indications are that not sufficient votes will be cast to validate the election. In that event President Huerta will continue as provisional president. Another election will have to wait for his proclamation.

Nuevo Leon reports that the rumor of Diaz's arrest reached there, but such voting as there was appeared to be in his favor. Few ballots were cast, however. Several hundred votes were cast at Juarez, and Diaz is in the lead there. Soon after the polls opened General Jose Salazar appeared with 700 cavalymen, all of whom cast their ballots and immediately left for the south. If their horses are in good condition these cavalymen should be able to repeat the performance many times before the polls close.

At Piedras Negras, opposite Eagle Pass, Tex., federal officers cast the votes of the soldiers, who formed the bulk of the voters, and unofficial returns gave Huerta more than 2200 of a total of 2350 votes cast.

At Chihuahua the disorder is reported to have been so great as to determine the military governor to order a postponement of the voting for state officials.

Another report from Coahuila says that Governor Maas was unable to be present, and that no election was held because he had not issued his official proclamation.

Little interest was manifested in the election in Mexico City. There was the usual Sunday crowd in the streets, but little talk of politics or the possible results of the election. Everywhere voters were apathetic. Reports from a dozen precincts, in which more than 1000 voters were registered, show that only fifty-nine ballots have been cast. The military patrol kept the crowds moving and gatherings at street corners were quickly dispersed. Hundreds of voters who are unfriendly to the Huerta government remained at home, and the belief is that they were intimidated.

This same fear may explain the lightness of the vote in other sections of the country, particularly along the northern border and in the ports where Diaz is known to be strong. A report says that at Piedras Negras, where the Constitutionalists are particularly strong, the polls were not opened at all.

Whatever the final returns from the elections show, the Constitutionalists are not likely to regard the voting as conclusive. The whole election is being openly denounced as a farce by the leaders. General Carranza voiced this opinion at his headquarters in Hermosillo. He said: "The Constitutionalists will not recognize the result of the electoral farce, whether it is said that Huerta or any other candidate is elected, because in the actual condition of the country it is absolutely impossible to hold legal elections. Therefore we will keep on combating with arms the regime that may result."

Cannot Confirm Arrest of Diaz. Vera Cruz, Mex., Oct. 27.—It is reported that General Diaz has been ordered under arrest for remaining at his hotel in defiance of the orders from the minister of war. The general was in consultation with a number of his advisers, and thereafter it was made known that the health of his wife would forbid him to leave his apartments. The rumor that he is actually under arrest cannot be confirmed.

Bridegroom of Month Victim of Poison Wilmington, Del., Oct. 27.—George P. Clickner, twenty-one years old, of 610 South Clayton street, a bridegroom of four weeks, died in the Delaware hospital of poisoning. The drug was swallowed several days ago, and it is thought to have been taken by mistake.

Had Pin in Appendix.

Philadelphia, Oct. 27.—While operating for appendicitis upon five-year-old Henry Majewsky, of 3268 North Howard street, physicians at the St. Mary's hospital discovered that the real trouble was caused by a pin which the lad had swallowed four months ago. The boy probably will recover.

The little gasoline engine will turn the hand separator and do good work if the right kind of pulleys are used, but it should be partitioned off in a room by itself or at least have the exhaust connected up outside. The smell of gasoline must be kept away from the cream.

The poultry department of the Minnesota experiment station strongly recommends cracked corn soaked several hours in skim, sour or butter milk as an excellent ration for fattening poultry for market. It not only produces rapid growth, but keeps the fowls plump and in good condition.
